English Proficiency Assessment Report

Name: Dimas Wahyu Nugroho

Role: DevOps Engineer

Overall CEFR Level: B2 — Upper Intermediate

Sub-Scores

- Reading: B2

Dimas demonstrates a strong ability to understand a variety of texts related to his field, including technical documentation, articles, and reports. He can identify the main ideas and specific details, as well as infer meaning from context. His reading skills are well-suited for following updates in the DevOps community and comprehending complex information.

- Writing: B1+

Dimas can produce clear and coherent texts on familiar topics, particularly in technical contexts. He is capable of writing reports and documentation but may occasionally struggle with more complex grammatical structures and vocabulary. There is room for improvement in terms of style and precision, especially when crafting detailed technical documentation.

- Listening: B2

Dimas exhibits a strong ability to understand spoken English in both formal and informal contexts, including meetings and presentations related to DevOps practices. He can follow conversations and grasp the main ideas as well as specific details, though he may occasionally need clarification on jargon or less familiar topics.

- Speaking: B1+

Dimas is able to communicate effectively in discussions about familiar subjects, particularly those relevant to his role as a DevOps Engineer. He can express his ideas and opinions, but may struggle with fluency and spontaneity in more complex conversations. Continued practice in speaking will enhance his confidence and clarity.

Overall Recommendation

Dimas Wahyu Nugroho is assessed at a B2 level of English proficiency, which is commendable for his role as a DevOps Engineer
